October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month

Domestic violence thrives when we are silent; but if we take a stand and work together, we can end domestic violence.

In the United States, an average of 20 people experience intimate partner physical violence EVERY MINUTE.… This equates to more than 10 million abuse victims annually.

1 in 4 women and 1 in 7 men have been victims of severe physical violence by an intimate partner in their lifetime.

Over 63,000 victims seek services from domestic violence programs in Minnesota every year, this represents only a fraction of those affected as only one of every five survivors seeks services.

What not to say to a victim of domestic violence...

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Question</th>
<th>Why it is detrimental...</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Why don’t you just leave?</td>
<td>This shifts the burden on violence onto the survivor, not the abuser. It implies that everything could be over if the victim took action, rather than if the perpetrator stopped hurting them. Victims may feel forced to stay due to financial reasons, feeling emotionally/physically trapped in the abuse cycle, threat of homelessness, or lack of a support from family/friends. <tr>
<td>Why did you stay?</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Why did you go back?</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>What did you do to make them so mad?</td>
<td>You are blaming the victim – nothing they do makes them deserve physical or emotional harm.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>They just need to stop drinking/using drugs – then the abuse will stop.</td>
<td>Substance abuse and intimate partner violence are two separate issues. Abusers may use alcohol and drugs to justify their violence. Alcohol/drugs don’t transform a fundamentally peaceful person into an aggressive one.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Can you just move on?</td>
<td>The consequences of abuse do not end when you leave your abuser. Victims can suffer from residual mental health problems, financial issues, and complications due to shared property.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>That seems so unlike them…</td>
<td>This implies that you don’t believe the victim. Perpetrators are often well respected or liked in their communities because they are charming and manipulative. Domestic abuse often happens behind closed doors, and abusers threaten victims that no one will believe them or help them if they speak out.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Every couple fights in a relationship.</td>
<td>Domestic abuse is not equitable to an argument about taking out the garbage or responsible financial spending – it’s not a two way fight.</td>

Power and Control: Immigrant Victims

In addition to the many tactics that abusers use to gain power and control over their victims, immigrants have additional strategies used against them. The Power and Control Wheel, developed by the Domestic Abuse Intervention Project in Duluth, MN, illustrates the various tactics abusers use to gain power and control over their victim.

Additional Methods Used Against Immigrant Women May Include:

EMOTIONAL ABUSE:
- Lying about her immigration status.
- Calling her racist names.

ECONOMIC ABUSE:
- Forcing her to work “illegally” when she does not have a work permit.
- Threatening to report her to Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) if she works “under the table.”
- Not letting her get training or go to school.
- Forcing her to sign papers in English that she doesn’t understand – court papers, IRS forms, and immigration papers.
- Harassing her at the only job she can work at legally in the U.S., so that she loses that job and is forced to work “illegally.”

USING COERCION AND THREATS:
- Threatening to report her to ICE and get her deported.
- Threatening that he will not file immigration papers to legal her immigration status.
- Threatening to withdraw the petition he filed to legalize her immigration status.

USING CHILDREN:
- Threatening to remove her children from the United States.
- Threatening to report her children to ICE.
- Telling her he will have her deported and keep the children with him in the U.S.
- Convincing her that if she seeks help from the police or courts the U.S. legal system will give him custody of the children. (In many countries men are given legal control over the children and he convinces her that the same thing will occur here.)

Crime Victims Resource Center is a partner agency with United Way, receiving funds to provide direct services to crime victims.

Each year we provide over 400 victims with counseling, safety planning, intervention, support, education, and other services based on their needs. Emergency assistance is provided to meet basic needs such as; transportation, hygiene products, emergency shelter, food, and clothing.

We promote safety, security, growth, and recovery in an effort to improve the health and well-being of our clients and the community.

United Way funds also allow us to provide sexual abuse prevention education to over 500 second graders in Mower County each year. This education empowers children to identify and report sexual abuse to keep them safe.

Thank you to all that contribute and to United Way of Mower County for the support!!

In the first six months of 2018 we have provided 3,396 services to 350 victims.

Online Volunteer Training

We have recently restructured our training program, which now includes online and in person training. This approach allows volunteers to complete the training when it’s convenient for them! This online training covers topics such as the criminal and civil justice systems, victims’ rights, confidentiality, crisis intervention, and various crime specific advocacies. The in person training focuses on agency policies and protocols, as well as practice role plays for the types of phone calls a volunteer advocate may receive.

HOW IT WORKS:

1. Call CVRC and request a volunteer application.
2. Complete the volunteer application.
3. Meet with the volunteer coordinator to interview for the position.
4. Complete the online and in-person training.
5. Start assisting victims of crime in Mower County!
